Talbot, Adams retire

by Terrence Kohner

"I left the purebred livestock business temporarily 40 years ago and entered the educational field.

"NOW I'M not certain what my lifework should have been. I would have been a darn good farmer."

For a 1962 recipient of the University of Minnesota distinctive achievement award in education, this summary is a WSC faculty member's modest description of his distinguished career.

F. R. ADAMS came to Winona State as registrar in 1955, joining the education department in 1957 as supervisor of elementary and secondary student teachers. He has also conducted various courses.

Adams is entering retirement this summer.

As State Director of Teacher Personnel from 1938 to 1953, Adams was engaged in the developing and raising of standards for teacher-training in Minnesota.

CONTRIBUTING TO his prominence in education is the State Advisory Committee which Adams planned and set up in 1947. Composed of representatives of all teacher preparatory institutions in Minnesota, its function is the maintaining of certain educational standards.

The committee has made recommendations in all areas of teacher preparation to the State Board of Education, Adams said.

During this 17 years of service to Minnesota, Adams was often called to be on accreditation teams in other states.

"THERE WAS a time when I knew practically every superintendent in Minnesota," Adams reviewed. "Besides delivering at least 75 commencement addresses, I have spoken to practically every educational organization in the state."

About his decision to come to WSC, Adams reviewed his regard for the high caliber of educational offerings and the success which Winona State graduates have had in education.

Dr. Talbot

"The story of the growth of WSC is typical of the evolution of normal schools all over the country," Dr. Jean Talbot said.

SHE HAS seen the college grow from a two year course college to a four and five year school and was on the first conference committee for graduate work. Presently serving as coordinator of upper-division, Dr. Talbot will retire this year.

Original courses called "common branches" and a few basic method courses were all the offering in teacher-training. The first step in making teaching a profession was made, according to Dr. Talbot, when colleges began telling what as well as how to teach. Normal schools like Winona State were pioneers in the evolution of schools and theory, she said.

"I HAVE been so busy being a grass-roots teacher that I haven't had time to cut swaths in other organizations," she reflected.

Dr. Talbot came to WSC as a physical education instructor, rising to department head. Her undergraduate work was at the University of Wisconsin. She attended Wellesley College before receiving her Ed.E. from New York University.

SHE HAS found time for membership in MEA, NEA, AAHPER, associations of college teachers of P.E., and has worked with the State Department of Education. She wrote the college history in conjunction with the centennial observance.

"I am going to spend the next few years getting used to not going to school. I don't remember when I didn't," she said.

College history is now available in permanent edition

The present history of Winona State College was undertaken as a part of the centennial year observance of its opening in September, 1860, as the first State Normal School of Minnesota. Because of her long association with the college, Dr. Jean Talbot was chosen by the History Committee, Lois Simons, chairman, to do the writing.

DISTRIBUTED IN a series of the regular quarterly bulletins of the college, members of the Alumni Society and others on the mailing list received the historical bulletin series from time to time throughout 1959-60.

So that it would be possible to obtain a single, permanent volume of the history at nominal cost, arrangements were made for binding of the several issues.

THE BOUND history of the college may now be purchased by those interested parties at the business office. The cost is $3.00 for each copy.

"The author has written rather generally and briefly of the first seventy-five years, trying to catch the spirit of the time and stressing fundamental patterns and principles that were developed, and leaving to the earlier histories many of the details of accomplishment already recorded," Dr. Talbot said in her introduction to the book.

The history consists of four chapters, Alumni Register, Faculty Register, Notable Quotes, Citations at Alumni Dinner, Citations at Centennial Commencement, and excellent illustrations.

CONGA! . . . Connie Eckhoff as Ruth in the musical "Wonderful Town" is shown attempting to interview the Brazilian Cadets in the "Conga" number. The musical played May 21-23.

HONOR ROLL

Three names have been added to the winter quarter honor roll. They are Nancy Frisby, 2.87, Carol Sherman, 2.42 and Gerald Freimark, 2.25.

EDITORIAL

Old editors never die they just fade away

In Russia, when the leader is removed from office, the new leader is given a party and the old leader a purge; when the command of a ship is changed there is a formal ceremony when the new captain comes aboard and the old leaves; when industry makes a change in its high echelons there is an exchange of keys to the executive washroom; but when there is a change in editors on a newspaper very little mention is made of the passing of the old staff.

LIKE THE Saturday Evening Post, but for a different reason, the Winonan has found it necessary to change editors. Our old editors, Terry Kohner and Bob Mahlke, are hoping to graduate this week. We who will be returning next year couldn't decide what to give them when they were finished on the paper. We felt that having them "piped" out of the Publications Room was not dignified enough. Because we have no washroom, we couldn't exchange keys and our advisor wouldn't allow us to purge and shoot them.

As a treat to Bob and Terry the staff allowed them to retire an issue early. This final issue of the Winonan was put out by next year's editorial staff. Much of the reporting was done by our former editors incidentally.

AS WE HEAD into next year the staff of the Winonan is already planning ahead for next year. We have been allotted enough money for 15 issues next year which is one more than we had this year. We feel that with an increased number of issues the paper can come out on a regular schedule.

As the staff elect we would also like to remind any members of the student body that the Winonan is going to lose seven staff members by graduation and a couple more who are transferring to other schools. Most of these people have been invaluable on the staff of the Winonan. A close estimate is that at least twenty people are necessary to take over all the work they have been doing.

MANY ENGLISH majors and minors will be called upon in their teaching experience to advise either a school newspaper or yearbook. One of the best ways to prepare yourself for this eventuality is to work on the student publications here at college. We will find a job for you no matter what your experience or background. This year we took a Persian student and turned him into a feature writer.

Next year late at night when you pass under the window of the publications room stop in and lend us a hand. You'll enjoy it and we'll appreciate it.

Successful year for Dr. Juul at WSC

Most of you are now aware of the purpose of the Inter-Institutional Exchange Winona/Oslo which has lasted for three years, and we are in a position to view the experiment in retrospect and take stock of the situation.

THE EXCHANGE of textbooks, journals, literature, teaching material, and a variety of exhibits has been very beneficial at least to the Norwegian counterparts, but the exchange of students and teachers may perhaps be considered the finishing touch. We may not be able to recognize the reciprocal influence today, but in time the affiliation may result in some valuable changes. Thus work done by the student at one college may be credit-earning at the other college.

Space will not permit me to present a detailed analysis, so all I want to say here is "Farvel, og takk for oss". It has been a full and busy year, crammed with events both exciting and inspiring. Not only have we been assigned challenging tasks at the college, on and off campus, but the fact that we have received invitations to speak to a variety of groups in and around Winona, has been most gratifying. We have been introduced to all sorts of clubs, societies and organizations representing various aspects of American life, such as Church Circles, Scouts, Literary and Art Clubs, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, P.T.A. groups etc. Everywhere we have been met with friendliness, courtesy, and hospitality. At the college faculty, staff and students have been most helpful and understanding.

IF WE ARE justified in regarding the exchange a success, this success may to a great extent be ascribed to the attitude of those involved. Thus the financing of Miss Gerd Kjustad's stay in Winona as a student of the State College is a striking example. The exchange of foreign students will very often depend upon scholarships due to the unfavorable rate of monetary exchange. Since the scholarship based on public funds was not forthcoming, citizens of Winona pooled resources and made Miss Kjustad's stay here possible. Thus Mr. Edwin E. Brown, Dr. L. E. Brynstad, Dr. Nels Minne, Miss Verlie Sather and Dr. Melvin Wedul has all contributed towards defraying living expenses, tuition fees, textbooks and incidentals, either by direct monetary assistance or by providing board and room. Not only Miss Kjustad, but all of us who are connected with the Winona/Oslo Project, are deeply grateful for this generous contribution revealing genuine interest in establishing friendly, personal relations with students and teachers at Oslo Laererskole.

We are happy to know that the project will not be terminated when we leave Winona. In the summer Miss Betty Schulze will leave for Norway, and she will be staying with Miss Kjustad while studying at Oslo Laererskole, having been selected by the Exchange Committee to represent WSC. As a private arrangement but intimately connected with the Project, Miss Sylvia Wedul will also be spending next year at the Oslo Laererskole. The following year probably two students from Oslo will be attending the WSC, so we have some guarantee for a continuation of the project for another two years.

FOR ALL this we wish to express our deeply felt appreciation to all with whom we have come in close and friendly contact, and I am authorized to extend to the faculty, staff and students at WSC felicitations and best wishes for the future.

Survey indicates WSC students want employment

Dr. J. H. Foegen, assistant professor of business at WSC, has been quite busy during the past few months. In addition to his teaching duties he has found time to conduct a survey of student earnings and work activity at the college and also has written two articles which are currently appearing in leading business publications.

THE RESULTS of Dr. Foegen's survey substantiate many people's idea that Winona State College is a working campus. At least half of the student body is working part-time and two-thirds of those not working said they would work if they could find jobs.

The average wage received by students is $1.07 per hour. This is considerably more than the 75 cents per hour received by students working for the college. Men work an average of 21 hours a week and earn $1.19 per hour while women average 16 hours of work each week at 85 cents per hour.

THE COMPLETE results of this survey are published in a twelve page report, and these reports have been put on the second floor bulletin boards of Somsen Hall in order that students may consult them.

Turning to his writing ability, Dr. Foegen's "Duality in Unionism" is the lead article in the May issue of Personnel Journal. This article points out that unions are both defenders and aggressors in labor relations, are liberal and conservative at the same time, and are interested in their own self-preservation as organizations as well as in looking out for their members' interests.

"Fringe Detriments" is the title of Dr. Foegen's article appearing in the May-June issue of Personnel Administration. This article deals with fringe benefits and points out that non-wage benefits received by workers may have bad as well as good aspects to them.

Currently Dr. Foegen is doing research on a couple of topics which he plans to write about this summer.

'Wonderful Town' wonderful musical

by Bob Mahlke

Entertaining performances of the musical "Wonderful Town" were given in Somsen Auditorium May 21-23.

CONNIE ECKHOFF and Mary Lou Percival cast as the two sisters job hunting in New York City gave strong performances in difficult roles. Their believable performances in the complementary roles gave the audience an enjoyable evening.

Miss Eckhoff in particular proved her ability to handle the role with the way in which she performed her difficult solo songs. Her performance of "Conga" assisted by the Brazilian Cadets was a show stopper.

Mrs. Percival, playing the flirtatious Eileen, teamed with Miss Eckhoff very well. This was evidenced outstandingly in the "Ohio" number.

SUPPORTING ROLES were also well handled throughout the performance. Bruce McLean gave his usual humorous portrayal of Appopolous, the devious modern artist. John "Cool Cat" Saecker was "way out" as Speedy Valenti the beatnik type.

Bob Baker was given a more than adequate performance by Glen Houghton in one of the few straight roles in the musical.

Leon Dudycha, as druggist Frank Lippincott, drew chuckles from the audiences with his hair-combing bit.

The muscular role of Wreck, a dumb athlete stereotype, was convincingly portrayed by De Wayne Tobias. His version of "Pass The Football" drew numerous laughs from the audience. Donna Myran, as his wife Helen, played her role delightfully.

Steve Radtke's role as the forward Chick Clark was well done.

NOT ENOUGH can be said about the fine way in which the orchestra, under the direction of Richmond McCluer, handled the difficult musical score of Leonard Bernstein. The sound was very good.

The entire production staff, under coordinator John Fluegel, did an excellent job.

The choreography by Mrs. Nita Voorhees was well done for a student performance. Here, again, the "Conga" number stands out.

FINALLY, a well deserved word of praise about Jacque Reidelberger whose stage direction and set design were evidenced in a fine overall production.

"Wonderful Town" was a wonderful production.

St. Cloud paper disagrees with dress code at WSC

(Editor's note: The following article appeared in a recent issue of the St. Cloud State newspaper, The College Chronicle.)

By Perry B. Schwartz

The administration of Winona State college recently had the audacity to enact a dress code for its students. "In order to maintain high standards of appearance and conduct on our college campus," the mandate states according to the Winonan, "... women do not wear shorts, pedal pushers, or slacks when engaged in the academic life on the campus during the normal academic day." Men are subjected to about the same regulations. To many, this action has over-tones of a high school, and we would hate to think that one of our sister colleges is a glorified high school. A college is for its students, not visitors (who supposedly prompted the code).

The reasons for not having a dress code are obvious. Many students are through with classes previous to 4:20 (which is the end of the "academic day") and on a sultry spring day, most of them would like to change into something a little more comfortable than a shirt and slacks or a skirt and nylons. Also, many students work on theatre crews or attend classes where good clothes may get damaged (such as art, industrial arts, etc.). As we all are well aware of, libraries are not the coolest places on campus. To concentrate on their studies, many students enjoy wearing informal clothing to the library.

Society considers slacks and bermudas to be proper attire. The students, it seems, consider them to be proper for going to classes. The latter does not, necessarily, conflict with the former. If society considers this type of informal clothing appropriate, then the colleges should also. The prime importance of a college is its students. If they are happy and comfortable in this type of dress, then they should be allowed to wear it. It is not indecent, immoral, or in bad taste.

SCS is an informal college as are many others throughout the country. It is a shame that many students have to live with the archaic prudity of some. It would be well to point out that times have changed. I sincerely believe that SCS is changing too, for we do not need a dress code.

Baseball team is one of the finest

by Jim Schultz

WSC baseball coach Dr. Luther McCown had nothing but words of praise for this year's team in an interview held last week.

CONCERNING THE upcoming NAIA playoff tournament with Missouri Valley he had this to say: "The chances of winning are good although we will have a long, hard trip. However, win or lose we still have one of the finest teams Winona State has ever had."

Last year in the NAIA tournament the Warriors beat Culver Stockton at Dubuque and went on to the finals in which seven other teams participated.

COACH MCCOWN summed up this year's squad with these words of praise: "We have been reasonably strong in all areas, batting, pitching and defense. In addition the team has shown tremendous spirit and desire to win. Another large factor for this season's success has been the outstanding leadership on the part of the players to help one another."

Warriors take undisputed NSCC baseball title

On May 26, Winona State College became the undisputed NSCC baseball champion by taking both ends of a double-header from Moorhead. This is the thirteenth time that WSC has won the conference title since 1948.

The 13-1 victory in the first game clinched the title while the 10-0 win in the night cap added the icing to the cake.

MARK DILLEY (6-1) tamed the Dragons with a five hit performance in the first game and Chuck Weisbrod allowed only two hits in the second game as he gained his fifth victory of the season.

The Warriors weren't quite as kind to the opposing hurlers as they slammed out a total of 21 hits in the two games.

BOB LIETZAU was State's big man with the bat Saturday as he had three hits in four times at bat in the first game and a perfect two for two in the second game.

Defensive honors of the day went to Lance Johnson as he turned in a couple of sparkling plays. In one instance Johnson threw out Lowell Kutches at first base. Johnson was playing left field at the time.

THE TWO victories leave the Warriors with a 15-3 record for the season. They have won 15 of their last 16 games after dropping the opening two games of the year to Loras.

Last Wednesday the Warriors decided in a big way that they and not the Missouri Valley College team would make the trip to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics baseball tournament this year. They did this by trouncing the Missouri Valley team by scores of 4-1 and 18-0 in best-of-three playoff series.

In the first game Mark Dilley allowed only three hits while striking out nine in going the distance for the Warriors.

IN THE SECOND game the Staters treated hurler Chuck Weisbrod to a 2-0 lead in the first inning and this was all he needed to gain his sixth victory of the season. Chuck allowed the opposition only two hits. This was Weisbrod's second two-hitter in a row.

The second game was called after six innings by mutual agreement.

It should be noted that Missouri Valley had requested and obtained permission to delay the playoff so that WSC could finish its regular play. The playoffs were formerly scheduled to be held May 26 but the Warriors had a double-header with Moorhead on that day.

Reservations for housing next year should be made

Upperclassmen who plan to return to school next fall would be wise to make reservations now according to Dean of Men M. L. Mariner.

Mariner attended the April 27 meeting of the Inter-Faculty Organization conference at St. Cloud. Concern was expressed by all the state colleges about the expected increase in enrollments and the resulting heavy demands for dormitory rooms at the colleges.

It would also be advisable for students planning to live off campus to make deposits on rooms or apartments.

Listings of available off-campus housing are available in the Dean of Men's office.

Golfers second in NSCC tournament

Winona State finished second in this year's Northern States College Conference golf tournament which was held at Moorhead, Minnesota.

THE WARRIORS finished only nine strokes behind champion Mankato State. St. Cloud was third followed by Moorhead, Michigan Tech, and Bemidji.

Individual and team scores were higher than usual due to the fact that the meet was played in the rain, but coach Molinari said that the rain wasn't a determining factor since "everyone was under the same handicap."

Those that made the trip to Moorhead were Mike Gigen, Dave Vail, Bob Hogenson, Tom Thaldorf and Len Mayer. Gigen finished third in the individual scoring of the tournament.

Student is elected SNEA secretary

A Winona State student was elected to a state office in the Student Minnesota Education Association (SEMA) at the group's state conference at St. Cloud State College April 14.

Mary Lou Arneson was elected secretary of the group. Miss Arneson, a sophomore at WSC majoring in elementary education with a social studies minor, is from Dorchester, Iowa.

WRA elects officers; Sherman wins crown

Pat Sherman brought "home the bacon" for the second year by sweeping the Carlton Invitation Tennis Tournament held May 18-19. This is the first time in Carlton's tennis history that a champ has repeated. Winona State also won the consolation doubles crown.

PAT DEFEATED Marty Strain, Carlton, 6-2, 6-4 in the championship game. She also defeated Margie Rex, Carlton, 6-0, 6-1, Dahl of Gustavus 6-0, 6-0, and Dunlap of Carlton 9-7, 6-0.

Gretch Koehler of Winona was defeated in the semi-finals by Marty Strain, 6-2, 3-6, 4-6. Gretch won two matches previous to her loss.

Babs Shely and Sal Rotty dropped the first match to UMD's Rathe and Larson but came back to dump Bass and Hefti of Carlton 6-4, 1-6, 6-4 for the consolation crown.

Joan Squires and Ancy Hellickson were eliminated from the tournament after dropping their first two matches to Schmidt and Oettinger, La Crosse, 6-0, 6-3, and Ford and Pitts, 6-3, 4-6, 2-6.

OFFICERS FOR the 1962-63 year were announced at the annual WRA picnic held, Wednesday, May 23. They were: President, Gretta Johnson, Vice-President, Judy Kidd, Secretary-Treasurer, Karen Grim, Sports-Leaders, Jan Lubinski, Gretchen Koehler, Sal Rotty, Carol Wenger, Sharon Bearson, and Ann Rose.

Approximately sixty students attended the picnic. Following the supper, Volleyball was held at Memorial Hall.

"Round-up Time" was the theme of the U of M playday held May 12, at the U of M, Minneapolis. Students from colleges throughout the State of Minnesota participated in softball, volleyball, basketball, touch football, games and relays, bowling and swimming. Participants were placed on teams which were named according to the theme.

In the championship games, Chaps versus Longhorns, State's WRA was presented by Jan Lubinski, Joy Plooster, Gretch Koehler and Jean Lubinski (two students on each team listed respectively). The "Chaps" were the champs. Following the days activities a Chuck Wagon Supper was served outside. The students were all attired in cowgirl apparel.

Other students from Winona State were: Karen Grimm, Betty Voss, Pat Sherman, Ruth Dahling, Sharon Keller, Joan Kidd, Diane Cardinal, and Sheryl Sebo. They were accompanied by WRA advisor, Miss Moravec.

Play-off for the championship title in Co-Rec volleyball will find the Spikers versus the Nit-wits. Member of these two teams are: Spikers: Joan Kidd (captain), Gail Heller, Carol Wenger, Ron Schutty, Bud Willock, and Lynn Berry. Nit-wits: Pat Sherman (captain), Sharen Keller, Ruth Dahling, Don Fister, Butch Anderson, and Jim Starkman.

Reserve space for Club Night

The third annual Club Night, sponsored by Circle K will be held Thursday, September 6.

This year the club booths will be set up in room 200 instead of the Smog. This is in order to leave the Smog free for the entertainment which will be provided throughout the evening.

All freshmen will be attending the event, according to Steve Radtke, chairman of the event.

Club officers are asked to notify Radtke immediately — if they intend to participate and they have not already done so.

Dolphins to give show in Indiana

The Dolphin Club will present "Aqua Days in Disneyland" in the Evansville, Indiana Country Club pool Friday, June 8.

This is the second year that the Dolphin Club has presented a show in the Evansville pool. 34 members of the club will make the trip.

Pasteur Hall highlight of year for Dr. Minne

The completion of Pasteur Hall and the start of instruction in the new building is one of the highlights of the 1961-62 school year for Dr. Nels Minne, WSC president.

Dr. Minne said, "The major apparent item was the completion of Pasteur Hall and the start of instruction in the new facility, which is the start of giving greatly improved instruction in the sciences."

LAST FALL the college was rated by NCATE, a national committee of the NEA which rates teacher training. The college prepared for the visit of the evaluating team during the preceding school year, compiled a lengthy report about WSC for the committee and strengthened the teacher education program in preparation for the visit of the team.

Also of importance was the inauguration of the heating season with the opening of the new heating plant. Any future expansion of the college would be hampered without this vital facility.

INCLUDED IN the many more highlights of the past year for Dr. Minne has been the work on plans for the new buildings to be constructed on campus. A request for funds to build an industrial arts-art building and an education classroom building has been prepared for the Legislative Building Committee which will forward the requests to the 1963 Legislature.

"If the money is granted — generally speaking — the Legislature would make the funds available in 1963. Where we have to acquire land for the buildings, it would be 1964 before we could begin construction, then another 18 months to two years before occupancy."

ALSO IN plans for new buildings, WSC joined three other state colleges in collecting the $5 per quarter fee for the proposed student union.

On work for next year, Dr. Minne said that the long term building plan has been submitted to the State Building Commission. "We are now in the process of putting together our budget requests which will go to the 1963 Legislature."

AS FAR AS the enrollment next year, Dr. Minne says his "crystal ball" prediction is around 1600 students or an increase of about 7%.

Coeds are first WSC sorority; Roth President

Nineteen members of the Coed Club were pledged as charter members of the Zeta Upsilon Chapter of the Delta Zeta Sorority last Monday. Mrs. Ruth Hopf, faculty advisor, and Sue Roth, president, were initiated to membership at the same time.

THE ZETA Omicron Chapter from La Crosse State College assisted Mrs. Gary Schlosstein, province director from Cochrane, Wisconsin, in the ceremony which was followed by a tea in the faculty lounge. Winona State College is the first of the five state colleges of Minnesota to have a national sorority on campus.

Delta Zeta has the largest number of enrolled chapters in the United States. Sue will be attending the National Convention in Hot Springs, Arkansas, in June.

OTHER OFFICERS are as follows: Barb Benike, vice president in charge of membership; Dennie Schroeder, vice president in charge of pledging; Brenda Anderson, recording secretary; Patty Pottratz, treasurer; Nancy Thompson, corresponding secretary; Lucy Lohmann, historian - editor. Other members include Lois Kock, parliamentarian; Nancy Frisby, social chairman; Jill Florin, scholarship chairman; Dana Bluhm, standards chairman; Jo Aadahl, Jo Horton, Ancy Hellickson, Ellen Headington, Carolyn Maertens, Marlys Pater, Lois Russell, and Betty Schulze.

Winonan names 1962-63 editor

Managing editor of the Winonan in the 1962-63 academic year will be James R. Schmidt.

This past year he has been business manager, in title, but actually he's been more active on the news staff in various capacities.

Jim, a mathematics major, will be a senior. He also belongs to the Academy of Science and is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, the honorary journalism fraternity, of which he is treasurer.

Announcement of Schmidt's appointment was made by Adolph Bremer, adviser.

Drama fraternity formed

For the first time in any college in this area, a chapter of the National Collegiate Players, Pi Epsilon Delta, leading honorary dramatic fraternity in America, was established here May 26. Largely through the efforts of the director of the Winona State College theatre, Miss Dorothy B. Magnus, who is a member of the University of Minnesota chapter, the 77th installation took place at WSC.

THE NATIONAL Collegiate Players is in its 40th year with a membership of approximately 9000 men and women who have been elected to this honor because of their contributions to either the academic or the professional theatre. Among the honorary members from the professional theatre are Judith Anderson, Helen Hayes, Raymond Massey, Agnes Moorhead, Sir Cedric Hardwick, Henry Fonda, Charles Laughton, and Tyrone Power.

The first chapter was organized at the University of Illinois in 1922 and was followed the same year by others at the Universities of Wisconsin and Minnesota. Others in Minnesota are located at Hamline, St. Olaf, St. Catherine's, Gustavus Adolphus, Mankato, St. Cloud, Macalester, and Augsburg.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE Players seek to recognize, promote, and encourage the best in theatrical work in educational theatre and to cite for special commendation individuals or organizations in community or professional theatre who exemplify the ideals and standards which NCP seeks to emulate.

The ceremonies of installation and initiation for the WSC chapter took place on the Somsen Auditorium stage. The ritual was conducted and the emblems conferred by the National First Vice President, Miss Meta Frey, director of theatre at St. Catherine's. She was assisted by Miss Anne Simley, formerly director of Hamline theatre and currently executive secretary of the Minnesota State High School Speech League. Others assisting were Miss Magnus and John Breitlow, a member of the University of Minnesota chapter who is on the staff of the speech department of WSC.

OFFICERS OF the new active chapter are President, Carol Sherman; Vice President, Connie Eckhoff; Secretary, Ann McAllister; Treasurer, John Davis; and Historian, Gordon Stinson. Advisor is Miss Magnus.

Alumni of the college who were initiated into associate membership were Joseph Fitzgerald, Donald Gulbrandsen, Janis Randall Stukel, and Rev. Hugh Turton.

Preceding the ceremony a reunion of active and associate initiates with the conferring officers as guests was held at the home of Miss Sherman. Following the installation and initiation all participants were honored at a formal banquet at the Winona Country Club.

SC rejects resolution; Dr. Hoyt new advisor

In their last meeting of the year, the student commission voted to reject a resolution from the Wenonah Players and selected a new advisor for the coming year.

THE RESOLUTION concerned a fear expressed by the Wenonah Players that their club was coming under excessive control by officials of the college.

This arose from the fact that drama activities are now to be handled through the division of language and literature.

The commission, which heard a report of an investigating committee, decided that it could do nothing about the matter and thus rejected the resolution.

DR. DANIEL B. HOYT was elected advisor of the group. Dr. Hoyt replaces Dr. Augusta Nelson. Dr. E. T. Millen is the second advisor.

Ralph Behling, English instructor and member of the finance committee, answered questions concerning regulations regarding fund drives at WSC. He emphasized that the regulations are not to restrict or curtail justifiable fund raising projects but are to regulate and control these activities for the protection of the student body as a whole.
